

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

SATURDAY, OCT. 30, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Commissioner-General of the Land Office has decided the case of the Rancho Cuyana in Santa Barbara county, California. The survey of 172, which has been published under the Act of 1864, is rejected, and the survey of 188, executed by Norris, is held to be final by publication under the Act of June 11, 1860.

Joseph Fredwest, for the past forty years connected with the Press of Europe and America, and lately in the employ of the Wahrheitsfreund, died at Cincinnati yesterday.

Trenor W. Park, of the Panama Railroad, says that his road has determined to start a new line of twenty first-class steamships between New York and San Francisco, taking in Central America and some of the South American ports.

Postmaster-General Jewell is understood to be opposed to the total repeal of the amendment to the Postal Law passed last Winter. He believes in the present rates of postage on all third-class matter, including transient newspapers.

He wishes the present rates retained on all third-class merchandise, but newspapers and magazines he will recommend that the rates which existed previous to the passage of the Hamlin amendment be restored.

B. Griffin and John Lovell, laborers, were killed yesterday at Brighton, Massachusetts, by the fall of a gravel bank.

A dispatch from Richmond states that on Tuesday forenoon an explosion of fire damp occurred in the Raccoon Pit, Chesterfield county, which caused a fire in which four men were burned to death.

Thos. M. Bailey has been appointed Internal Revenue Gauger for the first California District. Isaac Eddy is appointed Internal Revenue Storekeeper for the same District.

The President has issued his proclamation for a Day of Thanksgiving, fixing that event to occur on this day on the 25th of November.

Secretary Bristow has commenced to prepare his annual report, which promises to be of unusual interest.

The disaster in Virginia City and its serious check upon the gold and silver production, is much discussed among bankers and brokers in New York.

A Washington dispatch says: We have the best authority for the statement that reports relative to a change of policy on the part of the Government towards the Cuban question are in the main correct. That subject is now attracting the earnest attention of both the Government of the United States and that of Spain, and it is believed that in his forthcoming annual message to Congress the President will recommend that the independence of the Cubans be recognized.

Things are improving in this State. Even Sacramento has no empty dwelling houses.

We are sorry for HENDRICKS, TILDEN and others. Gilroy, California has a Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

THERE is great weight in the Chinese version of the Buddhist religion. A copy weighing three quarters of a ton has been presented to a library in England.

THE Callista Free Press gives the low price of quicksilver as a reason for its suspension. The high price of silver is the usual cause of newspaper death.

THE Academy of Sciences and the State University are going to look after the grape vine fiend, the phylloxera, and that small insect may as well prepare for extermination.

ABOUT how many private secretaries will Governor IRWIN employ? We have read the names of at least a dozen gentlemen who are certain to be appointed to that position.

GRAND Master J. M. BROWNE has appointed A. A. SARGENT Grand orator of the Grand Lodge, F. and A. M. for the ensuing Masonic year. Mr. SARGENT has accepted the appointment.

THE increase is fifteen per cent. this year in the number of insane committed to the asylum from San Francisco. For 1874 the number committed was one hundred and ninety-five, while for the nine months of 1875 ending Sept. 30 the number is two hundred and ten.

THE Evening Express of this city says "the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad is the only line on the coast possessing vitality which is open to an alliance with Eastern overland projects." Railroad Companies in the East who chance to read this pronouncement will see at once what they may depend upon.

It is rumored that three members of the cabinet are so disgusted with the appointment of CHANDLER that they threaten to resign. The gentlemen are unreasonable and inconsistent. If they could stand DELANO and several others who have held places in the cabinet they have no cause to turn up their noses at CHANDLER.

The Sacramento Rec of the 26th inst. says: "The Bank of THOMAS FINDLEY at Grass Valley again closed its doors yesterday, and this time we fear for all time. It will be remembered that the bank was affected by the suspension of the California Bank but resumed some time since. But it had to again succumb. We are sorry for it."

THE Sacramento Rec is one of the few journals of Republican predilection in the State that candidly admits the election of CARR to be anything but a party victory. The fact is that the general belief that CARR was misused by the Board of Regents and the sympathy which the people always feel for a man whom they believe has been wronged is the sole cause of the Professor's election.

The Facts.

Says the Los Angeles Herald: "While Tom Scott is lobbying with senators and Congressmen for an appropriation more than equal to the cost of building the Texas and Pacific road, and while his newspapers and subsidized canvassers are laboring with might and main for the attainment of the same end, the Southern Pacific is stretching forward steadily and without the slightest indication of faltering by the way-side." Now the Herald knows that it is lying. It knows that Tom Scott is not lobbying for an "appropriation" of one dollar in money or bonds for the Texas Pacific road. It knows that Tom Scott's request is not for money, but for credit. It knows that the thing asked for is that the Government shall guarantee the interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the company's bonds—the company not to issue more than $5,000 per mile of said bonds; and that for the security of the Government for this guarantee of interest, the company gives a first mortgage upon its property.—San Diego Union.

If the Herald selected its words from the vocabulary which seems to be a favorite with our San Diego contemporary we should say that the Union lies when it says Tom Scott is not lobbying for an appropriation, but as we do not sully our columns with slang terms and blackguard epithets, we will merely remark that when it makes this statement it asserts what it knows to be untrue. The fact as admitted by the Union is that Scott is lobbying to secure the passage of a bill which binds the Government for the payment of the interest on the bonds of the Texas Pacific railroad to the amount of $55,000 per mile. Now we have the authority of able civil engineers that one-half of $55,000 per mile will build and equip the road.

If this is so what is to be done with the remainder? Does it not look as though there was a large-sized private speculation secreted in this proposition? If the Texas Pacific road can be built for $18,000 per mile, and its bonds can be turned into cash at the rate of $35,000 per mile, it is probable that those who pocket the $17,000 per mile overplus will not care about into whose hands the road falls. As security for the money paid out as interest, the Government is to have the first mortgage on the road. Then we suppose a second mortgage will be issued as security for the payment of the $35,000 per mile bonds. If it cannot be shown that the Government is responsible for both the principal and interest, who will purchase these bonds? It may not be that Scott is lobbying for a direct donation or subsidy. The Union says he is not, and the Union speaks as Scott directs, but should Scott succeed in passing his bill he will not realize a net profit of $17,000 on every mile of track he builds and ultimately leave the Government only a partly worn-out road for the $35,000 per mile and interest it has been made responsible for. It looks to us as though it would come to this at last.

The Herald is not disposed to throw obstacles in the way of the Texas Pacific road. On the contrary, we desire to aid its construction by all honorable means in our power. If the Scott party are only desirous for Southern overland railroad communication, why are they so determined to have a monopoly of the whole route, when by operating in conjunction with a Pacific Coast company the object could be attained so much sooner? Why such a strong manifestation of the dog-in-the-manger principle? The opinion is widespread that the Scott party are not acting in good faith and that they have not the remotest idea of building the Texas Pacific unless it can be done at a profit with the people's money. The Herald sees no reason for abandoning the position assumed some months ago, that the first locomotive that awakens the echoes around San Diego Bay will be owned by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

THE manner in which some firms do business in California and the reason why they sooner or later go into bankruptcy and swindle their creditors and stockholders is very clearly set forth in the complaint of MERRIAD against the California Furniture Manufacturing Company of San Francisco, in which it is stated that the complainant is a shareholder; that the company owes him $35,000; that its liabilities are over $150,000; that the managers persist in declaring two per cent per month dividends when there are no surplus funds on hand, that to pay these dividends the managers have borrowed $10,000 and that the President who controls the business owns but one share of the company's stock. A great many business enterprises are conducted on the plan here exposed. Is there cause for wonder that they fail or that their liabilities are as a mountain to a mole hill compared with their assets?

We notice a good deal said in the papers about the capacity for corn in Los Angeles county, and what it will do. A gentleman recently by that county tells us that water and lands cost $800 per acre, and that the corn in the sack sells for 90c, which does not seem to leave a large margin.—San Diego World.

The gentleman who is troubled about "margin" probably grew his corn crop on the high mesa land or upon the mountain side. The fact that Los Angeles Valley farmers raise more corn than the remainder of the State and that they plant corn crops year after year and prosper and grow rich from the yield of these crops is pretty strong evidence that they find a considerable margin for profit. There is an important fact which the World's informant has overlooked which is that there are thousands of acres of land in Los Angeles Valley on which good corn crops are raised without irrigation.

We must invest a good deal in smoke. We annually manufacture twenty cigars for each man, woman and child in the United States. Forty years ago two per head was the average.

For Los Angeles.

CALIENTE, Oct. 29.—The following passengers for Los Angeles left on the Telegraph Stage Line to-day: J. Rosenthal, W. Ryan, W. Johns M. Hutchinson and M. Chawli.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29th.—A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of J. D. Parker, a stock broker, doing business on Montgomery street, on the charge of embezzlement. The complainant, A. T. Fletcher, alleges that he employed Parker to purchase ten shares of stock in October, and that the stock valued at $600 was converted to his own use.

Robert Fair was arraigned this morning in the Police Court on a charge of attempting to murder Mr. Fisher on Sunday by throwing him down stairs. He was held to bail for $500.

A painful accident happened last evening to a man named John Nugent who is employed in the Union Iron Works. Nugent was employed as feeder of the steam hammer and while engaged in putting a block under the machine the ponderous weight fell on his hand crushing it into a jelly.

The British steamer Belgie of O. and O. S. S. Line arrived this morning twenty-seven days from Hong-Kong and 17 days from Yokohama. There were four whites and 326 heathen passengers.

Most of the morning session of the Police Court to-day was taken up with the examination of the charge of false pretenses brought by L. Atkinson & Co. of this city against M. Edwards of the late firm of Edwards & Hoff of Los Angeles. Complainants allege that the defendant represented his firm to be out of debt and worth $60,000 on the strength of which representations he was trusted with goods to the amount of $500. About the time the bill fell due the party became insolvent and Atkinson & Co. claim that the representations made were false.

The general Thomas mill and mining Company has incorporated with $5,000,000 capital to mine in Esmeralda county Nevada. The Trustees are Geo. Dodge, S. Haydenfield, J. F. Fog, M. D. Townsend and George S. Ladd.

A party of military gentlemen, and Gov. Patterson among the company, visited Fort Alcatraz yesterday to witness the trial of a 200-pound Parrot and a 15-inch gun. A target was set up on Angel island, distance two miles and one hundred yards. Fifteen shots were fired, and although none of them struck the target the shooting was considered fair and the trial was satisfactory. The 15-inch gun proved to be almost as effective as the Parrot.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon as John Cummings, a well known stock broker, was driving along Van Ness Avenue, accompanied by his wife and a lady friend, Mrs. Ashburne, the horses took fright near Market street and became unmanageable. Mr. Cummings and the ladies were thrown violently out of the vehicle, the former being badly bruised and one of the ladies sustained a broken arm and the other a broken leg. Dr. Bennett was summoned to attend them this morning.

Fire at Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 29th.—A fire broke out last evening in Rogul's Building near the Walker House and spread to the adjoining buildings, destroying several stores and McKimmon's large stable. The fire was checked between the Walker House and the White House. The loss is estimated at from $15,000 to $25,000.

EASTERN NEWS.

Another Mystery.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., October 28th.—The body of a young and beautiful woman, aged 25 years, was found in the river to-day. The corpse was richly dressed, wearing a purple silk dress and a neat breast-pin and earrings. There was on her person a pocket book containing $75, a card case with cards bearing the name of M. M. Blackwell, a check for baggage to Leavenworth, and a pass from Chicago to Kansas City.

Further investigation in the case of the lady found dead in the river at this place has developed nothing new regarding the manner in which she came to her death. It has been ascertained that her trunk was checked from Wamego, Kan., to Leavenworth on the 7th of October, but when she arrived is not known. A pass on the K. P. R. R. from Wamego to Kansas City, signed by Long, proprietor of the Leland hotel, Kansas City, was also found in her trunk, together with other letters showing that she had been housekeeper at some time in the Broadway House, Chicago, and in the Leland hotel, Kansas City. The case is still being worked up.

It is told of a man poorly dressed, that he went to church seeking an opportunity to worship. The usher did not notice him, but seated well-dressed persons who presented themselves when finally he addressed the usher, saying: "Can you tell me whose church is this?" "Yes, this is Christ's church," "Is he in?" was the next question, after which a seat was not hard to find.

"Stay," he said, his right arm round her waist, and her face expensively turned to him, "shall it be the kiss sympathetic, graphic, oriental, intellectual, paroxysmal, quick and dismal slow and unobscure, long and tedious or what?" She said perhaps that would be the better way.

When a Missouri engineer ditched his train, he faintly asked, "Did it kill any one who parted his hair in the middle?" They answered that three such were lying dead. "Then I die happy!" he sighed, and was soon no more.

In these lives of ours tender little acts do more to bind hearts together than great deeds or heroic virtues, since the first are like the dear daily bread that none can live without, the latter but occasional feasts—beautiful and memorable, but not possible to all.

If you wish success in life make perseverance your bosom friend, experience your counselor, caution your elder brother, and hope your guardian genius.—Addison.

MORNING DISPATCHES

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

PACIFIC COAST.

One Point for Ann Eliza.

SALT LAKE, October 29th.—Judge Borman, in the Third District Court, has just decided that the order made by Chief Justice McKean some time since, ordering Brigham Young to pay Ann Eliza Young $7,500 alimony be enforced, and that Brigham Young be imprisoned until the same is paid, with costs.

Two Men Drowned.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., October 29th.—This morning a water pipe belonging to the Excelsior water company, located at Smartsville, broke and two men named Patrick Kerrigan and James McShane were drowned. McShane leaves a wife and six children. Kerrigan was a single man.

The following is the official vote of this Judicial district, consisting of Yuba, Sutter, Colusa and Sierra counties: Keyser, Dem., 2,865; Bliss, Ind., 1,310.

After the Fire.

VIRGINIA CITY, October 29th.—The city presented a very lively appearance to-day, the streets being thronged with men and teams removing the debris from the late fire. There seems to be employment for all who were thrown out by the burning of the mines, and things are decidedly more cheerful. Many buildings have already been started, and a few weeks time will make a vast difference in the appearance of the burnt district.

Many who had fine buildings on C street will be contented with one-story bricks until Spring, when the other stories can be added. In regard to the mines, Mr. Fair thinks the Consolidated Virginia will be hoisting ore inside of sixty days, unless heavy snow storms should prevail to prevent hauling heavy timbers from the mountains. The mine itself is as sound as a dollar, not one set of timbers being burned. He takes a hopeful view of matters and considers the situation not so bad as represented. They will send about three hundred tons a day through the Savage until their own hoisting works are ready. They have secured the gallow's frame of the Prospect mine, which will be a great help to them. The water has almost disappeared from the mine. Curtis does not speak so hopeful of the Ophir. He thinks the machinery is a total loss, but parties competent to judge say a good deal of the heaviest can be made available again. The Relief Committees are busy supplying those who need it with clothing, bedding and food. They supply all with transportation who wish to leave, and are feeding about two thousand daily at the various rooms. Supplies are coming in liberally, and there is not much actual suffering, except, perhaps, from the weather, it being very cool, with indications of snow. Shelter is about the only thing they fall short of. The body of a man was found in Black's building to-day, having probably been caught by the falling walls. This makes four known to have lost their lives by the fire.

EASTERN NEWS.

Murdered and Eaten by Cannibals. NEW YORK, October 29th.—A Boston special says the barks Delia M. Long and Jewess, both of Boston, and a British bark which sailed some time ago from New South Wales for Auckland island, were becalmed in the Hecla islands and boarded by cannibals in large numbers, who overpowered the crews, plundered the ships and scuttled them. The entire crews were killed and eaten at a cannibal feast.

Cuban Affairs.

NEW YORK, October 29th.—Advices in Cuban political circles in this city, from Paris, state that on the 25th inst. the Secretary of the Spanish navy at Madrid issued orders to the Caracra navy yards to get the Spanish iron clads and all wooden vessels not temporarily needed, and which are around the Spanish coast, ready for service in the West Indies. Also that the appointment of Gen. Cabellos to succeed Count Valmezeda in command of Cuba is a foregone conclusion with the Cabinet, Valmezeda refusing to remain longer.

Commissioner's Report.

WASHINGTON, October 29th.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is devoting all his spare time to the preparation of his annual report. He does not intend recommending any changes in the rate of taxation as now fixed by law. He will point out some errors of the present law in relation to the collection of taxes, and will ask Congress for legislation explanatory of some passages in the internal revenue law which are now rather obscure.

Election Excitement.

CHICAGO, October 29th.—A great meeting of business men was held at Farwell Hall to-night to protest against the action of the County Commission in giving nearly all the Election Judges to the Opposition. Party feeling is intense and political excitement is running higher than for a number of years. The Board of Trade will close on election day, Tuesday, and many stores will allow their clerks the entire day to guard the polls from fraud.

Bodies Found.

CHICAGO, October 29th.—The bodies of three men of the schooner Minnie Williams were found at Port Water, Michigan, to-day. The entire crew of eight persons are supposed to have been lost.

Subscription for the Virginia sufferers.

NEW YORK, October 29th.—Laidlaw & Co., agents in this city of the Bank of California, to-day received additional subscriptions in aid of the sufferers by the Virginia City fire to the amount of $1,800. Of this sum Sutton & Co. subscribed $100. The total subscriptions received by this firm for the Virginia City sufferers foot up to $2,017.

The Alabama Claims.

WASHINGTON, October 29th.—In the Court of Commissioners on the Alabama Claims judgments have been rendered as follows: Case 351, in favor of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, $6,235; case 317, Panama Railroad Company, $9,024; case 378, Panama Railroad Company, $1,406.

Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, October 29th.—Assistant Surgeon Hubbard, in response to the Surgeon-General of the army, dated at New Orleans, October 23d, says: "The progress of the yellow fever in this city, as obtained from the Board of Health, is reported as follows: Number of cases of fever, 84; number of deaths from fever, 46. Two new cases and two deaths are reported since Saturday. There has been no frost thus far. The thermometer at 2 o'clock this afternoon stood at 80."

Hog Cholera.

CHICAGO, October 29th.—There are unfavorable reports of the hog cholera, which is taking off thousands of swine in Indiana, Missouri, Illinois and other Northwestern States.

GOLD REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO OCT. 29.
Gold, 110 1/2.
Greenbacks—Buying, 55 1/2; selling, 57.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Sheriff Rowland is out tax-gathering.

The Congregational Church social took place last evening.

We are informed that Mr. Bonesteel is quite ill.

The District Court and Board of Supervisors will meet on Monday.

Judge Hayes leaves to-day for San Diego after a two months' visit.

The steamer Senator leaves for San Francisco to-day.

The steamer Orizaba arrived from San Francisco to-day.

Gold closed yesterday afternoon at 116 1/2 per cent. premium. Currency sold here at 55 1/2 @ 57.

The interior of the Commercial Bank is assuming an elegant banking appearance.

The schooner Humboldt, Capt. Kusle, from Cuffey's Cove, has arrived at Wilmington.

Passengers for the steamer Senator, leave here at 10:15 A. M. for San Pedro, and at 4 P. M. for Santa Monica.

Hon. R. C. McCormick, Delegate to Congress from Arizona, and wife are at the Pico House.

The steamer Mohongo arrived at Santa Monica and San Pedro loaded with combustibles.

Mr. Charles Brode received a large invoice of groceries yesterday from San Francisco.

The Chinese held a meeting last night to raise subscriptions to continue their great festival three days longer.

Mr. Elmer W. Holmes of Riverside, left this morning for San Francisco, to meet his family who have just arrived from Massachusetts.

Messrs. Grebe & Gross, of the Cosmopolitan saloon, Temple block, are doing a heavy business in lunches and oysters.

Messrs. Barbee & Gates and Mr. H. McLellan will be in their elegant offices, over the Commercial Bank by November first.

Mr. M. Keller has just put out his posters all over Los Angeles, Compton, Wilmington and Florence. That is real advertising.

There were three cases before the Mayor yesterday morning. They were of the usual character—blear-eyed drunks.

Deputy Sheriff Harris returned from Santa Barbara yesterday morning with one of the men who stole Campbell's two horse team.

The train from San Fernando yesterday morning did not bring any stage passengers in, as the stage failed to connect.

The State Investment Insurance Company has not suffered severely by the Virginia fire as will be seen by advertisement in this morning's paper.

The night before last during the severe sand storm the Coast Line Stage coming from Santa Barbara lost its way and for two hours was off the road.

Mr. Henry Baer, formerly in the picture department of Wolbers & Neitzke, will shortly open an establishment of his own. We admire his enterprise.

Sam. Prager, since the enlargement of his firm, is devoting tremendous energy to his business. He has an immense stock which he is displaying elegantly.

Lewin & Co. have just received a stock of new and popular novels. Among them we notice "Parkwater" and "Victoria," two first class novels just out of press.

It is reported that Henry L. St. John and A. Heimann have taken the Palace Hotel in Anaheim which will be run as a first class house, and will open on the 1st of November.

Officer Thomas yesterday evening arrested two Mexicans who were fighting in Chinatown. From one of the men he took a two edged dirk, with an eight inch blade. It was a murderous looking weapon.

Mr. M. Keller has just finished his first contracts for grapes and has commenced crushing on his second contracts. We still are learning that he has still a few casks left for grape juice.

Inducements are being made to the Main street railroad company to extend their track on beyond Washington street about one and a half miles. This would give the company a straight track nearly or quite three and a half miles in length.

Among the shipments yesterday were 80 sacks of feed from Hellman, Haas & Co.; 7 bales of wool and 325 dry hides from H. Newmark & Co.; 82 sacks of meal from Aliso Mills; 325 dry hides from Kallisher & Co.; 5 pipes of wine from Bernard.

Jose Morillo, a notorious desperado, was arrested by officer Cruz yesterday morning on Los Angeles street, back of the United States Hotel, for threatening to kill a man. The sooner this man is sent to San Quentin, the better for the peace of the community.

Madame Castera, a skillful milliner, will open an elegant stock of fashionable goods next Monday in Brode's block, next to Turn-Verein hall. All the latest Parisian styles will be exhibited on opening day, and we recommend our fashionable leaders to give her a call.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Los Angeles dyeing, scouring and cleaning establishment, Messrs. Shaffer & Lippold are experienced in this line and can dye, scour or clean anything from a camel's hair shawl down to the commonest article of clothing. Give them a call.

A pleasant reception will be given at Leck's hall on Thursday evening next. We notice as the Committee of Reception Messrs. J. C. Kays, S. M. White and S. Sepulveda, which is a guarantee that it will be select and well managed.

Connecticut tobacco raised by George Spiker, on San Pedro St., one mile from the city and cured by the old process, is attracting much attention. He has raised about one acre of it, yielding a ton, and some of which he is selling for forty cents per pound. Three years ago Mr. Spiker took the premium at the fair.

Mr. H. McLellan, the agent of Goodall, Nelson & Perkins' line of steamers, received a telegram from Santa Barbara yesterday stating that the Orizaba had left that place at 5 o'clock in the morning with 110 passengers, three hundred tons of freight and one hundred empty pipes for Los Angeles. She will arrive this morning at San Pedro.

A belligerent drunk man undertook to clean out Hamel, at the United States Hotel, and his book-keeper, but the last we saw of the gentleman he was on his back in the street in a totally demoralized condition. A fine at Mayor Beaudry's court this morning will probably show him that it is useless to tackle these muscular United States Hotel boys.

Late on Thursday night as Mr. Caystle was returning home he discovered a second peeping into the window of a room occupied by one of the ladies in the family. On being hailed he ran and Mr. Caystle fired at him. We merely publish the above as a notification to the finder of a dead man in any of our vineyards or zanjas to take him to Mr. Caystle at the Mirror office.

Col. E. J. C. Kewen has reopened his law office and hereafter we will hear his eloquent voice in our Courts. He has formed a partnership with Mr. Stephen M. White, one of the brightest young men of the Los Angeles bar, and they will make a strong legal team. With the learning, talent and experience of Col. Kewen, combined with Mr. White's extensive acquaintance, brilliant powers and great industry will at once take a leading position.

The Pacific Insurance Agency of Littlefield & Williams advertise some of the oldest fire insurance companies in the United States and Europe. Their assets run away up in the millions, so high, in fact, that any fire short of the last general conflagration of this terrestrial sphere will not impair their ability to pay. As that contingency is so remote we recommend our property owners to secure themselves against possible loss by the ordinary conflagrations that trouble this country.

Dr. Aborn leaves to-day for Santa Barbara, and now that he is leaving a few words of commendation will not be construed into a solicited puff. The editor of the HERALD has had business relations with Dr. Aborn during the past four years, and we take pleasure in stating that during that period he has maintained the character of a gentleman in every respect. As a physician his work speaks for itself and needs no endorsement from us. He has made the study of certain diseases, which he names in his advertisements and circulars, a specialty. He does not pretend a familiarity with all the diseases that flesh is heir to, nor does he claim a mastery over them. But he does claim to understand and know how to cure or alleviate a number of diseases, and he claims no more than he is able to perform is fully substantiated by the sworn statements of hundreds who have been cured or benefited by his skillful treatment.

The Chinese Festival.

The burning of the Devil at the Chinese Joss House on Thursday was a more serious affair than we first supposed and, on inquiring, we find we were entirely mistaken as to its cause. The best informed Chinese theologians on Negro alley say that it was a spontaneous combustion, owing to the Devil's anger at so many women were allowed to gaze on his satanic majesty. The priests fabricated a smaller one, but he did not quite fill the bill, and the men could not sleep, owing to the noises the devil made, to express his dissatisfaction. At two o'clock yesterday morning a large oblong was formed on the street in front of the Joss House, about 8 feet wide by 150 feet long. At the North end stood the three priests with their books and gongs, backed by the four boys in blue gowns. In front of the priests were three immense pieces of Chinese confectory three feet high. The oblong or hollow square was composed of burning tapers, rich and tempting dishes of meat, cakes, wines and tea, all laid out for the gratification of the angry devil. Hundreds of sheets of prayers were burned, and until daylight, the priests labored to exorcise this malignant deity. The Chinese staid at noon yesterday were so alarmed that they had raised several hundred dollars to continue the festival for three days longer, hoping that by hard praying and good feeding the big devil might be appeased and go off and keep the other devils in subjection. But, one thing they are determined on no women shall see the devil, when he is again up. We have always been unsuspecting enough to put our trust in women, but our faith has a severe shock, when the Chinese devil takes such fright at even the presence of Eve's daughters. It is rumored among the Chinese that just before the devil consumed he was inspected by a fashionably dressed lady, who glared in all the latest development of the back skirt. We don't vouch for this, but it is evident that the Chinese devil has had some trouble in his dominions with the fairer sex.

The longest night in Norway lasts three months and when a young man goes to see his girl, her mother, before retiring tells her not to ruin her health sitting up half the night. The young man manages to tear himself away about midnight.

"If country fairs a goin' to do agricultur' emmy good," says a Long Island farmer "keep out the wimmin. Them air pull-backs get a man's eyes so that he can't see nothin' else."

ACROSS THE YEARS.

HESTER A. BENEDICT.

Sweetheart, do you remember how, Half-hidden in the bloomy heather, We watched a workman at his plow, On idle Sunday day together?

Not over-fall of song or splendor, But a man with sweats of honest day, And rare with music soft and tender.

We were but children—you and I—With childhood's trust and childhood's hope, With all our future's upward sloping, If cold and care were anywhere.

And when the workman's plow was done, We knew the work of his day, And we knew the work of his day, And we knew the work of his day.

Enough for us that we could feel, Our pulses at the day's pulse beating, And know that the divine was near, And that our own was meeting.

I know not why—O, sweetheart, mine!—But that dear day my heart is waiting What time I watch the lessening line Of your hair on the hill-side fading, I'll cross the sea, across the sea, To follow you to the end of the world, Holding my place in the cross.

That eases all the old-time meadow. I wrap the red rose in my hair; I rock the red rose in my hair, I rock the red rose in my hair.

So be it. All the while it is sweet, And I know that the divine was near, And that our own was meeting.

No shadow of regret shall meet me, No shadow of regret shall meet me, No shadow of regret shall meet me.

Summer with me, O in calm, Lying in my heart and over, The while the sun is on the beam, With all the laughing and my lover.

Santa Monica Items.

[From the Outlook Oct. 20th.]

The new car shop is now in process of erection. The building is to be 25 by 130 feet.

The barkentine Ella is now lying at the wharf discharging 150 tons of coal for the Railroad Company.

The schooner John Hancock arrived yesterday with a cargo of lumber for Barron, McFarland & Co., of this place.

We now have not less than 125 houses in Santa Monica, and we know of several parties that intend building as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

We noticed two eight-mule teams driving out from Santa Monica last Monday afternoon for San Bernardino. They were loaded with merchandise for our back-country city.

Mr. W. A. Hammond, of San Mateo county, has just purchased a number of lots in Santa Monica, and made arrangements to build twelve cottage residences, which he proposes to sell or rent.

A coal yard is being established in Santa Monica, by a San Francisco firm. They have already received 800 or 700 tons of coal, and intend to keep a good supply, if they meet with the necessary patronage.

Mr. Atkinson, the Master Mechanic, has in his two-story-one-story building, on the corner of Main and Commercial streets, a number of rooms for the material for a number more, and when the next Panama steamer arrives, the rolling-stock will all be put together at once.

How They Do It.

My success is owing to my liberality in advertising.—Robert Bonner.

Advertising has earned me a competence.—Amos Lawrence.

I advertised my products and made money.—N. Longworth.

Constant and persistent advertising is sure prelude to wealth.—Stephen Girard.

He who invests one dollar in business should invest one dollar in advertising that business.—A. T. Stewart.

The man who pays more for shop rent than for advertising does not understand his business.—Horace Greely.

A boy stopped catching flies all at once yesterday and turned to his mother and inquired: "Ma, ain't Mrs. Parsons a nice woman, though?" "I guess so, why?" she answered. "Because, when I was over there this morning she put her hand on my head, like this, and she almost cried as she said: 'Poor, dear boy! how could your father ever think of marrying that sharp-nosed, vinegar-faced old maid for a second wife?' She took Henry into the shell, and while she held fast to his ear she informed him that it would be nothing short of death if he ever entered Mrs. Parsons' house again."

COURT REPORTS.

Probate Court—O'MELVENY, J.

In the matter of the estate of Edwin W. Peck deceased.—Order of Probate to deliver the property to N. P. Richardson, administrator of said estate.
